City Break

📍 Perth, Scotland

What a fab few days we've had on a city break to Perth. From enjoying the vibrant art scene to indulging in delicious food and learning about the city's rich history - it's been such a fun trip! We will share our getaway over the next few days..

 Art trail

We started our day by grabbing a coffee and walking the River Tay Public Art Trail. The sculptures are really unique and celebrate Perth's history. The above links to the self-guided tour 🍷

It feels like a hidden oasis and has a really cute tearoom. It was lovely to see their snowdrop festival.

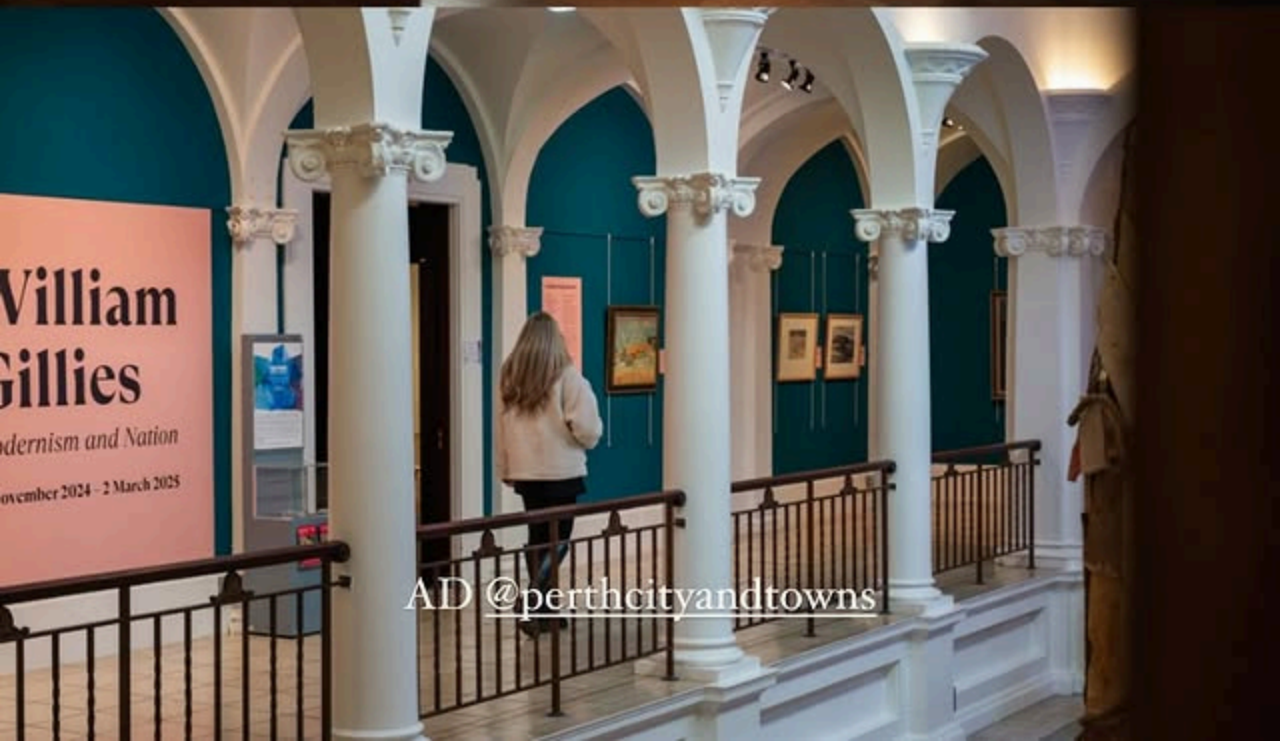

We then browsed the lovely
